Dear Parents/Carers,

RE: Planned industrial action on the Southeastern network

As you will be aware there is planned industrial action by RMT on the Southeastern network on the following dates:

Tuesday 21st June
Thursday 23rd June
Saturday 25th June

As the media are reporting, a significant amount of disruptions is expected on the network on these dates and for the whole of the week commencing the 20th of June.

The link below provides further information on service availability throughout the week and how to claim a refund.

We understand that this will be causing concern for students sitting their A-level examinations and we strongly suggest that if you haven't already, you begin to make alternative arrangements. For instance, using other forms of public transport, staying with family or friends locally and car sharing where possible.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Stanley
