

Yearly overview

Subject: Year 10 Media Studies

Term 1	Term 2	Term 3	Term 4	Term 5	Term 6
Prior knowledge: Students covered the basics of Photoshop and image manipulation as part of the carousel. Students explored key concepts such as audience, representation, language and industry as part of the carousel.	Prior knowledge: Students will have created a skills portfolio, showing the development of their production skills. Students will have reflected on skills in their portfolio in order to develop critical learning techniques.	Prior knowledge: Students have developed their media production skills through the creation of a pre-production portfolio. Students have explored and undertaken a range of pre-planning tasks in order to prepare for their final production piece. Students have reflected and identified areas for improvement.	Prior knowledge: Students have responded to a brief. Students have created media texts with 4 key concepts in mind. Students have reflected on feedback and planned the production of a media text. All skills that form the Unit 3: External Assessment rubric.	Prior knowledge: Responded to a brief (external).	Prior knowledge: Completed Unit 2: Production unit through a development of production and planning skills. Student also developed reflective skills. Students also completed external unit (1st sitting) developing production skills around the 4 key concepts.
Term 1 knowledge	Term 2 knowledge	Term 3 knowledge	Term 4 knowledge	Term 5 knowledge	Term 6 knowledge
This term: Students to explore key areas such as image manipulation, breaking down a brief, creating texts for specific audiences. Students to start exploring different Photoshop skills in order to manipulate images for different scenarios and texts.	This term: This term students will continue to develop their media production skills through an investigation into product pre-production. Students will explore and undertake a range of pre-planning tasks in order to prepare for	This term: Learning outcome A:  Develop and apply media pre-production processes, skills and techniques.	This term: Learning outcome B:  Develop and apply media production and post-production processes, skills and techniques to create a media product in line with brief.	This term: This term students will prepare for their second coursework component by exploring audience and purpose in a range of media texts. Students to explore key media theories and concepts.	This term: This term students will explore film production techniques including editing, camera, sound and special effects. their final production piece. Students will reflect on each task, and improve areas identified independently and via peer feedback.

Future knowledge: Builds towards first coursework component release in Term 3.	Future knowledge: Builds towards first coursework component release in Term 3.	Future knowledge: Complete learning aim A in preparation for learning aim B.	Future knowledge: Completion of component.	Future knowledge: Knowledge in preparation for coursework brief release in September.	Future knowledge: The knowledge from this term will prepare students for their Sept brief release.