1. Statement of Intent - Anti-Bullying strategy

We are committed to providing a caring, friendly and safe environment for all our students. Brompton Academy has a zero policy towards bullying. If bullying should occur, all students should be able to raise this and know that incidents will be dealt with promptly and effectively.

'The Academy does not tolerate bullying in any form inside the school or in the wider community' Ofsted report 2012 and "Safeguarding is effective" Ofsted report 2017

2. Bullying

a) Definition of bullying

Bullying can be defined in a number of ways. We follow DfE (Department for Education) guidance, which states:

"Bullying is behaviour by an individual or group, repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally. Bullying can take many forms (for instance, cyber-bullying via text messages, social media or gaming, which can include the use of images and video) and is often motivated by prejudice against particular groups, for example on grounds of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, special educational needs or disabilities, or because a child is adopted or has caring responsibilities. It might be motivated by actual differences between children, or perceived differences”

“Many experts say that bullying involves an imbalance of power between the perpetrator and the victim. This could involve perpetrators of bullying having control over the relationship which makes it difficult for those they bully to defend themselves. The imbalance of power can manifest itself in several ways, it may be physical, psychological (knowing what upsets someone), derive from an intellectual imbalance, or by having access to the support of a group, or the capacity to socially isolate. It can result in the intimidation of a person or persons through the threat of violence or by isolating them either physically or online”
(DfE Preventing and tackling bullying, July 2017)

Bullying has been described by students as:

- Name calling
- Spreading rumours
- Teasing
- Physical abuse e.g. hitting, pushing, pinching or kicking
- Having personal possessions taken e.g. bag or mobile phone
- Receiving abusive text messages/e-mails/IM (Instant Messaging) and social networking sites such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter
- Being forced to hand over money
- Being forced to do things they don't want to do
- Being ignored or left out - excluding others.
- Being attacked in any way due to religion, gender, sexuality, disability, appearance or racial or ethnic origin

b) Specific examples of bullying

Racist bullying – an incident, which is perceived to be racist by the victim or any other person. This can be in the form of:

- Verbal abuse, insults, name calling, racist jokes, offensive verbal behaviour
- Physical threats or attacks
- Wearing of provocative badges or insignia
- Bringing to the Academy racist leaflets, comics or magazines
- Inciting others to behave in a racist way
- Offensive graffiti or other written insults, even against food, music, dress or customs
- Refusing to co-operate in work or play
- Humiliating and/or ridiculing

(Taken from Macpherson Report 1999 and Bulliesout.com)

Gender bullying – this is generally characterised by:

- Abusive name calling
- Looks and comments about appearance, attractiveness, emerging puberty
- Inappropriate and uninvited touching
- Sexual innuendos and propositions
- Pornographic material, graffiti with sexual content
- In it's most extreme form, sexual assault or rape

Sexual orientation bullying – can happen even if the students are not lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgender. Just being different can be enough. This can be in the form of:

- Use of homophobic language
- Looks and comments about sexual orientation or appearance

SEN or disability – These students are often at greater risk of bullying. This can be characterised by:

- Name calling
- Comments on appearance
- Comments with regard to perceived ability and achievement levels

The need for adult sensitivity should be taken into account in a number of instances, e.g. when grouping children, marking children's work, sharing of results and assessment arrangements as well as an awareness of appropriate language being used when addressing students.

Indirect Bullying - This type of bullying can be very subtle making it harder to identify:

- Being ignored or left out
- Spreading rumours
- Manipulations
- Gossiping about a person
- Telling lies about someone

Cyber bullying

There are different types of cyber bullying which are becoming increasingly common across the country. Cyber bullying utilises modern communication methods to bully.

- Picture/video-clip bullying via mobile phone cameras is used to make the person being bullied feel threatened or embarrassed, with images usually sent to other people. 'Happy slapping' involves filming and sharing physical attacks.
- Text message bullying involves sending unwelcome texts that are threatening or cause discomfort.

- Sending offensive, rude and insulting messages. Nasty or humiliating comments on posts, photos and in chatrooms.
- Repeatedly sending messages that include threats of harm, harassment, intimidating messages or engaging online activities that makes a person afraid for his or her safety.
- Phone call bullying via mobile phone uses silent calls or abusive messages. Sometimes the bullied person's phone is stolen and used to harass others, who then think the phone owner is responsible. As with all mobile phone bullying, the perpetrators often disguise their numbers, sometimes using someone else's phone to avoid being identified.
- Email bullying uses email to send bullying or threatening messages, often using a pseudonym for anonymity or using someone else's name to pin the blame on them.
- Chat room bullying involves sending menacing or upsetting responses to young people when they are in a web-based chat room.
- Bullying through instant messaging is an Internet form of bullying where children and young people are sent unpleasant messages as they conduct real-time conversations online.
- Bullying via websites includes the use of defamatory blogs (web logs), personal websites and online personal polling sites.
- using sexting text/images as a form of retaliation or as a means to publicly humiliate and cause extreme embarrassment by the use of social media platforms.

There is not a specific law which makes cyber bullying illegal but it can be considered a criminal offence under several different acts including Protection from Harassment Act (1997), Malicious Communications Act (1988), Communications Acts (2003), Obscene Publications Act (1959) and Computer Misuse Act (1990).

a) Role of students in recording a bullying incident

- Report incident to either your Personal Tutor, a Learning Coach
- Email academy through our parental support system at refernow@universityofkentacademiestrust.org.uk

b) Guidance for parents/carers

Signs to look for if your child has been bullied:

- Behaviour changes
- Withdrawal
- Not wanting to go to school
- Lots of non specific illness
- Belongings missing

If your child has been bullied:

- Calmly talk with your child about his/her experiences.
- Make a note of what your child says including who was involved, how often the bullying has occurred, where it happened and what happened.
- Reassure your child that he/she has done the right thing to tell you about the bullying.
- Explain to your child that should any further incidents occur he/she should report them immediately.

When talking with teachers about bullying:

- Try to stay calm and bear in mind that members of staff may have no idea that your child is being bullied or may have heard conflicting accounts of an incident.
- Be as specific as possible about what your child says has happened, give dates, places and names of other children involved.
- Make a note of what action the Academy intends to take.
- Ask if there is anything you can do to help your child or the Academy.
- Stay in touch with the Academy and let them know if things improve as well as if problems continue.

If you are not satisfied:

- Contact the Pastoral Leader or the Assistant Principal for Inclusions to voice your concern and discuss a way forward.

- If this does not help there is a formal complaints procedure on the Academy website which will guide you through the next steps.

If your child is bullying others:

- Talk with your child and explain that what he/she is doing is unacceptable and makes other children unhappy.
- Discourage other members of your family from bullying behaviour or from using aggression or force to get what they want.
- Show your child how he/she can join in with other children without bullying.
- Make an appointment to see your child's Learning Coach or the Academy's Student Advocate and explain the problems your child is experiencing as well as discussing how you can work together to stop him/her bullying others.
- Regularly check with your child how things are going.
- Give your child lots of praise and encouragement when he/she is co-operative or kind to other people.

If your child is experiencing any form of electronic bullying:

- Ensure your child is careful whom they give their mobile phone number and e-mail address to.
- Supervise their access to the internet and social messaging sites.
- Check exactly when a threatening message was sent and keep it.
- Where necessary report incidents to the police.

Sanctions

Students who are victims or perpetrators will be encouraged to participate in Mediation or Restorative Justice meetings to try and resolve issues.

However for those individuals who persistently bully, the full force of the Academy's disciplinary sanctions will be applied including internal exclusion, fixed term exclusion and permanent exclusions where applicable.

However, Governors would need to examine the evidence that a wide range of strategies had been tried and failed to affect a positive change in the bullying behaviour.

5. Strategies to reduce bullying

The Academy will adopt a range of strategies to prevent and reduce bullying, to raise awareness of bullying and support victims and bullies. Including;

- Assemblies
- Co-operative group work
- Encourage circle of friends
- The support group approach/no blame approach
- Peer Mentoring
- Anger management programme
- PPD programmes
- Self esteem workshops
- Mediation/Restorative Justice
- Referral to counsellors

6. Confidentiality

Academy staff cannot promise absolute confidentiality if approached by a student for help. Staff must make this clear to students.

Child protection procedures must be followed when any disclosures are made.

It is very rare for a student to request absolute confidentiality. If they do, in situations other than those involving child protection issues, staff must make a careful judgement whether or not a third party needs to be informed. This judgement will be based upon:

- The seriousness of the situation and the degree of harm that the student may be experiencing or if the student is thought to be in danger of immediate harm.
- The student's age, maturity and competence to make their own decisions.

Where it is clear that a student would benefit from the involvement of a third party, staff should seek consent of the student to do so. If appropriate, staff might inform the third party together with the student. Unless clearly inappropriate, students will always be encouraged to talk to their parent/carers.

An underlying principle in supporting students in our academy is that all children are listened to sensitively and objectively and all incidences of bullying will be taken seriously.

Although the academy cannot guarantee confidentiality students will be informed of national and local helplines, if appropriate and where confidentiality can be maintained.

7. Support for students who experience bullying

If you are being bullied:

- Tell an adult or somebody you trust what has happened straight away.
- Get away from the situation as quickly as possible.
- Try to stay calm and look as confident as you can.
- Be firm and clear – look them in the eye and, if possible, tell them to stop and tell them how you feel.

After you have been bullied:

- Tell a teacher or another adult you trust within the Academy.
- Tell your family.
- If you are scared to tell a teacher or adult on your own, ask a friend to go with you.
- Keep on speaking until someone listens and does something to stop the bullying.
- Don't blame yourself for what has happened

When you are talking to an adult about bullying be clear about:

- What has happened?
- How often it has happened.
- Who was involved?
- Who saw what was happening?
- Where it happened.
- What you have done about it already.

If you experience bullying by mobile phone text messages or e-mail:

- Tell a friend, parent or teacher.
- Be careful who you give your mobile phone number or e-mail address to.
- Make a note of exactly when a threatening message was sent.
- Do not delete any messages. These messages will be needed.

For contacts and details of where to seek help outside the Academy see useful website addresses at the end of this policy.

It is vital that both victim and alleged perpetrator are kept informed of outcomes and accurate records using SIMS for all students involved.

It is important that accurate records are kept to show persistent issues arising between groups of students or on-going issues.

Also repeat bullies will receive stronger sanctions than one off incidents.

It also needs to be considered, where the same student is frequently seen as a 'victim', what measures can be put into place to support them.

The use of Mediation/Restorative Justice is encouraged wherever possible.

8. Monitoring arrangements

This policy will be evaluated and updated where necessary annually by the Assistant Principal for Inclusions. The views of students and staff will be used to make changes and improvements to the policy on an ongoing basis.

9. Dissemination of the policy

This policy will be shared via the Academy website; hard copies are available from the Academy reception on request. All stakeholders are invited to give their views on this policy.
